

	Distance Courses	Flexible Learning	Professional Development
WHAT?	Online or on-site (off campus) courses providing undergraduate or graduate level college credit.	Online courses providing undergraduate level college credit. Gordon Rule and General Education required courses offered.	Courses or programs online or on-site that provide continuing education credits.
WHO?	Non-UF students needing undergraduate or graduate courses.	Non-UF students needing undergraduate courses.	Anyone who is in need of professional development CEU's.
WHEN?	Most courses follow a traditional semester timeline, some courses are entirely asynchronous and some include a synchronous component.	Courses do not follow a traditional semester calendar but most be completed within 16 weeks from the original start date. Courses are entirely asynchronous.	Courses do not follow a traditional semester calendar. Contact hours vary by course or program.
Registration Dates?	Registration dates for most courses follow a traditional academic calendar of Spring, Summer and Fall semesters.	Start now! Open Enrollment! Register anytime and complete the course 16 weeks from the start now date.	Registration dates vary based upon programs and some courses follow a specific starting/ending date format.
Admissions?	Non Degree Application Required.	Non Degree Application Not Required.	Non Degree Application Not Required.
Will credits transfer?	Check with the institution where you are pursuing a degree.	Check with the institution where you are pursuing a degree.	These courses do not offer academic credit.